

I oppose any and all efforts by businesses or private citizens to violate my privacy by attempting to call my home for unsolicited purposes. This includes the world's largest banking institutions all the way down to mom and pop ice cream stands. Leave me alone. If I want to talk to a business, I'll call them.